

Post 9-24-68

Explosion Damages

Negro's House

CARTHAGE, Miss., Sept. 23 (UPI)—A house being built for a Negro family near a rural white neighborhood was heavily damaged today by an explosion.

Mrs. Winston Hudson, president of the Leake County NAACP chapter, said the blast nearly destroyed the house. The family of Johnny Gates had not moved into the almost completed home and no one was injured.